

9.1. Insère IS, ARE, DO ou DOES:

- ... Do ... you like action movies?
- he often go to the cinema?
- you a Bruce Willis fan?
- she like computers?
- you watching a scary movie tonight?
- What school you go to?
- Who those people talking to?
- your cat sleeping?
- Look! That dog stealing your sandwiches!
- Sara work in the afternoons?
- you writing this letter to your parents?

9.2. Why? – Because... Réunis les questions et les réponses correspondantes:

Why are you eating a hamburger?
Why is your brother walking to work?
Why are you cleaning your bike?
Why aren't you coming to the cinema?
Why are you crying?
Why do you like her?

Because he can't drive.
Because it's very dirty.
Because I'm very hungry.
Because I'm very busy.
Because she's nice.
Because I'm sad.

9.3. Negative sentences. Mets les phrases à la forme négative:

- I like dogs. ... I don't like dogs.
- He is a cowboy. ... He isn't a cowboy.
- She likes hamburgers.
- I'm a Robbie Williams fan.
- He speaks English.
- She goes to Paris.
- Larry is at home.
- They are from Liverpool.

On ajoute DO aux verbes pour la forme négative:
 I don't speak French.
~~I sleep not.~~ I don't sleep.

Auxiliaires: be, have, can, must, may, will
 I can't go to Vienna.
 You haven't got a car.
 She isn't here.