

13.1. Adjectif (se rapporte à un nom) ou adverbe (se rapporte à un verbe)?

- (beautiful) That was a beautiful... song and Celina sang it beautifully...(merveilleusement)
- (careful) John isn't adriver. He doesn't drive..... (prudemment)
- (angry) Our neighbour was very..... . And he spoke..... (d'une manière énervée)
- (bad) He works..... All his work is..... .(mauvais)
- (early) We got up..... We took an train. (tôt)
- (furious) „You fool“, he said He was..... (furieux)
- (quiet) Be, Terry. Why can't you work.....? (calmement)
- (proper) If a motorist doesn't park his car..... , he gets a ticket. (correctement)

13.2. „good“ ou „well“? (well: 1. Adverbe = bien 2. I'm well = je vais bien)

- You speak English verywell.... Your English is very.....good.....
- The story is..... . It's..... written. The film was really..... . All the actors played..... . We had..... seats (places, sièges)
- Jane is a secretary. She works..... She knows French very.....
- Mike is at history, he isn't..... at French. He doesn't do his French homework.....
- How are you? I'm quite, thank you.

13.3. „in“ (état) oder „into“ (mouvement, direction)

- Jane is ...in... her room. Don't go ...into... her room.
- Where's the dog? Has he gone the garden? No, he isn't..... the garden.
- Harry is sitting his boat. He's fishing. He pulls out a fish. It's very small. He throws it back the water.
- Ann is jumping the swimming pool. Sue is already..... the water. George is pushing Henry the water.
- „I said to the creature: ‚Come our spaceship‘. And then...“

