Last summer I went to France with some frends. Late in the afternoon we arrived at a place called Longchamps. We put up our tents in the midle of a field. Then we cooked a meal. We were rather hungry. The food was good. It was getting dark and we were siting around the campfire. We told storys and sang some funny songs. But then it began to rein. We crept into our tents. The sleeping bags felt warm and comfortable, so we all slept soon. In the middle of the nite I woke up. The tent was full of wather. We all hurried outside. It was raining heavily. There was a stream comeing through the fields. It flowed right under our tents.
