

12.1. DEFINITIONS. De quoi s'agit-il?

- A fruit whose name is also its colour.
- Some people read one every day.
- You write with it, and it needs regular sharpening.
- It is surrounded by the sea.
- It allows you to cross a river .
- What you get on your birthday and at Christmas.
- You need them if you've got bad eyesight.
- It shows you the route you have to take.
- This religious festival is celebrated with eggs.
- Another word for twelve.

an orange.....
 .....
 .....
 .....
 .....
 .....
 .....

12.2. Auxiliaires: Remplis les espaces.

used to - wouldn't - shouldn't - 'll have to - may - can - must not - must -

- It's not a problem, you .....shouldn't..... worry!
- Cars..... be parked in the driveway.
- Excuse me sir, .....I interrupt you for a second?
- ..... you show me your passport please, madam?
- I..... talk to her if I was you. There's no point.
- If we miss the last bus we..... walk.
- I know David very well, it .....have been him who did this.
- I..... live in Bristol, but that was five years ago.

12.3. DOING THINGS. Transforme le verbe en un nom finissant en -er:

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| Mr Connor owns land. He is a land- owner ..... | He smokes cigarettes He is a cigarette-..... |
| John makes glass. He is a glass-.....                 | They watch birds. They are bird-.....        |
| He drives trucks. He is a truck-.....                 | He makes trouble. He is a trouble-.....      |
| Ann sells books. She is a book-.....                  | You drink coffee. You are a coffee-.....     |
| Ron builds ships. He is a ship -.....                 | They play tennis. They are tennis-.....      |
| Belinda owns ships. She is a ship-.....               | We love music. We are music-.....            |
| She designs dresses. She is a dress-.....             | It opens bottles. It is a bottle-.....       |
| She teaches at school. She is a school.....           | It dries hair. It is a hair-.....            |
| He dances in the ballet. She is a ballet.....         |  |