

23.1 Adjective or adverb? Souligne la bonne solution.

- She played the piano beautiful / beautifully.
- Sheila is a quick / quickly learner.
- I know her quite good / well.
- Check your work careful / carefully.
- You should pass the test easy / easily.
- He is critical / critically ill.
- I was complete / completely shocked.
- It was a complete / completely mess.
- It was a sad / sadly day for us.
- Our French teacher speaks very quick / quickly

23.2 A Quiz. Réponds aux questions par des phrases courtes.

- Is Edinburgh an English city? ...No, it isn't. .....
- Do kangaroos eat other animals? .....
- Are crocodiles dangerous animals? .....
- Did Robin Hood live in New York? .....
- Was Charlie Chaplin British? .....
- Are dolphins fish? .....
- Do all Swiss speak German? .....
- Do you like French fries? .....

23.3. If-Clauses. (Dans les phrases avec if on emploie le past perfect, dans la phrase principale would have + past participle). Traduis:

- Si tu avais verrouillé la porte, le chien ne se serait pas enfui.
... If you had locked the door, the dog wouldn't have run away. .....
- Si tu avais pris le parapluie, tu n'aurais pas été mouillé (get wet).
.....
- Je t'aurais aidé si je n'avais pas été occupée (busy).
.....
- S'il n'avait pas perdu le numéro de téléphone de sa copine, elle ne l'aurait pas quitté.
.....
- S'il n'avait pas conduit si vite, il n'y aurait pas eu d'accident.
.....