

Link questions and answers:VISIT TO LONDONWhat Ann says:

Is this your first time in London?
 How long are you staying here?
 Are you working here or are you on holiday?
 Where are you staying? With Mark?

What Fred answers:

About three months altogether.
 Yes, I'm using his spare room.
 I've got a part-time job in a factory.
 No. I've been here once before but only for a few days.

altogether: en tout
 spare room: chambre
 d'amis
 factory: usine

YOUR COUNTRY*What Sue says:*

Where do you come from in Germany?
 Oh, do you come from the German speaking part?
 Which is your hometown?
 Bern is the capital of Switzerland, isn't it?
 What's Bern like?
 Why do tourists visit Bern?

What Hans answers:

Yes, it is.
 It's nice, not too big. In summer there are a lot of tourists.
 I was born in Zurich, but now I live in Bern.
 I don't come from Germany. I come from Switzerland.
 Yes, I do. I speak Swiss German.
 Because it's a historical town. And because of the bear pit.

bear pit: fosse aux ours

IN A CAFE*What Ms Parker says:*

Excuse me, is this seat free?
 Thanks. Do you think you could pass the sugar?
 Thanks. What's the food like here?
 Are there any other good places to eat round here?

What Mrs Good answers:

Of course I can.
 Sure it is.
 It depends. What sort of food do you like?
 It's OK. The hamburgers and chips are really good.

seat: siège
 chips: frites
 It depends: cela dépend

AT A BUS STOP*What Paul says:*

Does the number 9 stop here?
 Does it go as far as Leicester Square?
 There's quite a queue. Have you been here long?
 Could you tell me when we get to Leicester Square?
 Yes, it is.

What a woman answers:

I hope you will enjoy your stay.
 About five minutes. Here's a number 9 now.
 Yes, it goes all the way to Piccadilly.
 Of course. Is this your first time in London?
 Yes, I'm waiting for one myself.

enjoy: profiter
 queue: file d'attente

DANCING*What Eve says:*

I love this song. Shall we go and dance?
 Don't be such a pain! Come on dance with me.
 You're so boring. Why don't you feel like dancing?

What Ken answers:

OK, then. Let's try.
 I'm really hopeless at dancing.
 No, you know I don't like dancing.

your're a pain: tu es
 énervant
 boring: ennuyeux
 I feel like...: J'ai envie de...