

25.1. Which parts go together? Verbinde mit Linien:

| | | |
|-----------------------------|---|-----------------------------------|
| The older the wine |  | the more tired they became. |
| The further they walked | | the sooner you can go. |
| The longer it snowed | | the better the taste. |
| The faster you finish | | the more money she earned. |
| The harder she worked | | the more difficult is to learn. |
| The older you are | | the more slippery the roads got. |
| The foggier it became | | the better the quality. |
| The more expensive the bike | | the harder it was to see clearly. |

25.2. Simple present or Present progressive? Setze die Sätze in die einfache Gegenwart oder in die Verlaufsform (-ing-Form, immer dann, wenn man "jetzt gerade" sagen kann)

The sun...rises..... (rise) in the east and (set) in the west.

They (take) their dog for a walk every evening.

Why (you stare) out of the window?

Look. Our neighbours (have) a barbecue in their garden.

I (stay) at the Ibis hotel whenever I'm in Paris.

My car is in the garage. That's why I (walk).

Garry (not like) black coffee.

Listen. Mary (sing) in her room.

25.3. Adjective or adverb? Füge das Wort als Adjektiv oder als Adverb ein:

Please, drive ...carefully...! careful / carefully

..... they heard a loud scream. sudden / suddenly

Some passengers were injured by the crash-down. serious / seriously

It is too to go for a swim in this river. dangerous / dangerously

The children played on the lawn behind the house. happy / happily

Please be We don't have much time. quick / quickly

This was a accident. bad / badly

This sausage smells really good / well.

Have you seen a good film ? late / lately

