

It begins in London. Wendy, John and Michael Darling are visited by Peter Pan, the boy who refuses to grow up. With the help of his tiny friend Tinkerbell, Peter takes the three children on a magical flight to Neverland. This island is the home to Peter, Tink, the Lost Boys, Tiger Lily and her Indian tribe, and Captain Hook who is always defeating Peter Pan as well as is escaping the ticktocking crocodile that once bit off the pirate's hand.

|                                   |  |
|-----------------------------------|--|
| It happened in London             |  |
| We mustn't be late for the party. |  |
| We must hurry                     |  |
| to believe                        |  |
| a real person                     |  |
| that nasty tonic                  |  |
| wicked pirates                    |  |
| treasure                          |  |
| your last night in the nursery    |  |
| my last word                      |  |
| People have to grow up            |  |
| silly stories                     |  |
| poor Nana                         |  |
| He didn't mean it.                |  |
| He might come back.               |  |
| I'm so happy.                     |  |
| shadow                            |  |
| rope                              |  |
| The children aren't puppies.      |  |
| upset                             |  |
| to lock                           |  |
| the lost boys                     |  |
| What would Mother say?            |  |
| to take orders                    |  |
| fire-fly                          |  |
| dust                              |  |
| What's the matter with you?       |  |

|                                 |  |
|---------------------------------|--|
| pixie                           |  |
| mermaid                         |  |
| redskin                         |  |
| the chief's daughter            |  |
| Indian campment                 |  |
| shame on you                    |  |
| You saved my life.              |  |
| blockhead                       |  |
| crew                            |  |
| charged with high treason       |  |
| guilty                          |  |
| to banish forever               |  |
| to follow the leader            |  |
| we surround them                |  |
| plan of an attack               |  |
| pale face                       |  |
| sunset                          |  |
| imagine                         |  |
| I'm so glad to see you          |  |
| night dress                     |  |
| have a little fun               |  |
| to stand by                     |  |
| to release                      |  |
| try your luck                   |  |
| They're heading for Skull Rock. |  |
| It's an evil spirit.            |  |
| island                          |  |
| cod(fish)                       |  |
| hiding place                    |  |
| to tinkle                       |  |
| It's Wendy who is to blame      |  |
| to shanghai                     |  |
| Flying Eagle                    |  |